

City Council Discusses Classification Change

The City of Booneville held a special called meeting to discuss the possibility of changing their classification from a 6th class city to a 4th class city in order to allow sit down restaurants with 50 or more seats to sell beer.

Kasey Smith, from the Drug Awareness Counsel was present at the meeting and stated that they could provide the businesses training to spot fake ID's through the Drug Awareness Council. A recommendation was made to put this on the next regular meetings agenda to vote on.

Manchester Memorial Hospital Joins Forces with ARH Cardiology Associates and UK Gill Heart Institute to Provide Expanded Heart Care Services

MANCHESTER, Ky. (Aug. 29, 2014) -- Manchester Memorial Hospital (MMH), ARH Cardiology Associates and the University of Kentucky's Gill Heart Institute have partnered to offer Clay County and surrounding areas access to advanced cardiology services, it was announced today.

According to Erika Skula, Manchester Memorial Hospital CEO, as part of the partnership, Dr. Keerthana Karumbaiah, a general cardiologist, is now practicing at the Memorial Hospital and accepting patients at the Manchester Memorial Cardiology Clinic.

"We are excited about expanding our outpatient services in collaboration with ARH and the Gill Heart Institute. This allows us to offer quality heart care with convenience of location to our community and the surrounding areas," Skula said.

Robert Stivers, Kentucky Senate President, expressed his support for the partnership.

"By working together, ARH, the UK Gill Heart Institute and Manchester Hospital have reaffirmed their commitments to providing the best healthcare possible -- while at the same time making quality and life-saving heart care accessible on a local level," Stivers said.

"I am glad that the people of Clay County and surrounding counties no longer have to travel to other areas for these services," Stivers said. "The more we can provide locally, the better for our community."

Dr. Eli Capilouto, President of the University of Kentucky, said the partnership was a fitting reflection of the university's mission.

"For nearly 150 years, we have been committed to finding solutions that shape a better future for the people and communities we serve as Kentucky's land-grant and flagship institution. The expert medical care provided through this partnership is guided by that same philosophy," Capilouto said.

Dr. Michael Karpf, UK Executive Vice President for Health Affairs, emphasized that providing cardiac services close to home was in the best interest of patients and their families.

"It has long been our goal to be Kentucky's resource for highly complex quaternary care, so that patients don't have to go out of state for the best treatments available. But it makes the most sense for those same patients to be cared for locally whenever possible," Karpf said. "Our partnership with MMH and ARH Cardiology Associates makes this a reality for the people of Clay county and surrounding counties."

Save the Children's Get Ready Get Safe Program

Last Thursday, Owsley County's Save the Children's program participated in the Get Ready Get Safe Program. This program is an initiative designed to help US communities prepare to protect and care for the most vulnerable among us in times of crisis -- our children.

This program helps generate child-focused emergency plans, provide emergency training and ensure emergency resources are in place before crisis strikes. It keeps kids safe, securing the future we share. Creating a safe haven for children to work through their emotions. Providing the coping skills to help reduce the effects of disasters on young minds.

The children were divided into 5 different groups. They rotated between Gather wise supplies where they gathered things they may need in an emergency, that included kid-friendly items from the American Red Cross called the Red Cross Pillow Case Project; During Disaster -- where they found out what to remember when disaster strikes: follow the plan, remain calm sponsored by the red cross and the national guard and police; Tornado safety -- sponsored by the National Weather Service and KY Emergency Management; Fire Safety -- Sponsored by the Fire Department and the Forestry Department and Community Resources sponsored by Cooperative Extension Office; Booneville Water; Jackson Electric; Family Resource and Youth Services Center and the Partnership Housing, Inc.

THE WILL OF GOD
Everything ever made was created by someone for a purpose. A man builds a house for the purpose of living in it. Another man builds a business with the purpose of making a profit and providing a living for his family. As long as the home can accommodate the family and the business is making a profit there is no reason to modify or sell either one.

God does have a will for your life and the Bible does tell us we can know what that will is (Romans 12:1-2). Before we get into how you can know what God's will is for your life let's first look at how people look at the subject in the light of God's Word.

For all those thinking, "I do my part, I attend church when I can, I pray, I give money, I volunteer from time to time." Please consider this story, Christ was telling the apostles about a servant who worked all day in the fields. When the servant came home, the master of the house told the servant to make and serve him dinner. He goes on to explain that when he (the master) was done eating the servant was free to make his own supper and sit down and eat. Christ ends the story with an amazing comment, "Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not. So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do." (Luke 17:9-10) Think for a second about what Christ said here; a servant that does everything commanded him is "unprofitable" because all he has done is his duty. Most Christians seem happy with accomplishing the basics, prayer (1 Thessalonians 5:17), studying the Bible (2 Timothy 2:15), being in church whenever the doors are open (Hebrews 10:25), paying the tithe (Malachi 3:8-10). These four are only a few of the things God commands His people to do. If most people who claim to be Christians are honest with themselves, they will note that there may not be any, or maybe only one, thing on the list they accomplish on a regular basis (I would also like to note that 1 Thessalonians 5:17 given to show God that commands us to pray says, "Pray without ceasing." So if someone prays from time to time, usually when they don't know what else to do, it is not fulfilling the commandment to pray. God wants a constant attitude of prayer). Christianity is in trouble, most Christians think they are doing God a favor when they attend church from time to time or put some money in the offering plate. God grades us as unprofitable.

Before I go on, let me state that there are many faithful Christians, who are in church when the doors open, that take time to study the Bible, that walk through life asking for God's help each moment of the day and put more than 10% into the church coffers, but when a church's membership is 1,000 and regular attendance is 250-300 or a membership of 100 has normal attendance of 30-40 there is something wrong. Since some of those in attendance are those that attend periodically; then how many of the rest are faithful attendees? Knowing the will of the Creator for your life starts with being a living sacrifice; Romans 12:1-2 tells us, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your-reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

es last year in a collaboration aimed at improving access to tools for the diagnosis and treatment for cardiovascular diseases, according to Dr. Susan Smyth, director of the Gill

Heart Institute.

"What started as a conversation about how to provide the highest quality cardiovascular care locally has transformed into a healthy collaboration among these three institutions," Smyth said. "Quality cardiovascular care – available in close proximity to the patients we serve – is a critical need in the region and the Gill Heart Institute is proud to work with Manchester Memorial Hospital and Appalachian Regional Health in that effort."

Joe Grossman, ARH President and CEO, emphasized that the partnership builds upon the solid foundation of quality health care services already available in Clay County. "As ARH continues to grow the services we provide, we recognize the benefits of joining with other healthcare providers such as UK HealthCare and Manchester Memorial to strengthen the level and availability of care our patients are able to receive in their local communities," Grossman said. "As a team, we are providing patients access to ARH's exceptional medical professionals and UK's comprehensive cardiovascular expertise and resources, while maintaining the familiarity of community health care providers."

Board certified in internal medicine and nuclear cardiology, Dr. Karumbaiah earned her medical degree at the Bangalore Medical College and Research Institute in India and completed her internal medicine residency at the SUNY Upstate Medical University, Syracuse, New York. She has also completed her cardiology fellowship at University of South Alabama Medical Center, Mobile, Alabama. To schedule an appointment with Dr. Karumbaiah, call 606-598-4500.

Owsley County Students Attend 4-H Camp 2014

The week of July 28th – 31st, camp was held at J.M. Feltner 4-H Camp in London, Kentucky. Owsley County students camped with students from Breathitt, Jackson, Lee, and Pike Counties. Although it was the last week in July, the weather was absolutely wonderful and everyone seemed to have a wonderful time. The theme of 4-H camp this year was “Feltner Olympics”. Campers were divided into teams and worked together in their groups throughout the week on all events.

There were 10 teams overall. Each group worked throughout the week to try to collect the most points by collecting Camp Cash. To collect Camp Cash, the campers had to do a good deed such as pick up trash on the campground, say words such as “thank you”, “excuse me”, take up an adult’s meal tray or by winning events.

There were different classes held throughout the week. Campers signed up for four of the following classes on Monday: Canoeing, Recreation, Swimming, Archery, Nature, Arts & Crafts, Fishing, High Ropes Elements, Basketball, Riflery, Volleyball, No Sew Blankets, Outdoor Games, Scrapbooking, Robotics, Photography, Fishing, Outdoor Cooking, Soccer, Fun Foods and Mod Podge Coasters. Every year, 4-H’ers at the Owsley County Elementary School & Owsley County High School fundraise for 4-H. The profits that the 4-H’ers make from these fundraisers provide the means to send our students to 4-H camp. Students had the opportunity to sell Krispy Kreme doughnuts and Home Interior candles to raise their own camp fees. Also local businesses and individuals around town helped to provide scholarships for the students. Nancy Gabbard $170.00, Farmers State Bank $170.00, Owsley County Friends of the Library $340.00, Booneville Discount Drug $340.00, Jackson Energy Trust (Operation Roundup) $150.00, Owsley Elementary Family Resource Center $1,000.00, New Hope Masonic Lodge $100.00, The Sport Shack $50.00, Booneville Presbyterian Womens Outreach $170.00, Louise Moore $170.00 and Tom Cravens $170.00. We truly appreciate the support of these organizations; many of our youth could not attend camp without this help. On Tuesday, teams participated in a costume contest and on Wednesday teams put together skits that they presented to the entire camp. We had some wonderful presentations from the teams.

We would like to thank Laken Campbell and Ciara Christian for being our wonderful adult leaders; Bradon Mason and Logan Campbell for being our dependable teen leaders; Austin Sizemore, Ryan Moore, Sarah Hensley, Casey Price, Starlett Couch, Faith Duff, Emalee Patton and Hannah Richardson for being our Teens in Training; Carl Dean for driving the school bus; Pam Campbell and Melinda McIntosh for being our certified teachers to ride the bus with the students. Also special thanks to Owsley County Health Department for assisting with registration; and the parents/and or guardians of all our campers for allowing their children to attend 4-H Camp.

Thanks once again to all those who donated scholarship money, our teen and adult volunteer leaders. Thank you to all who helped make our week special! Also, thank you to Robots in Disguise for doing our 4-H T-shirts. It was a very fun and educational week and a great time was had by all.

Educational programs of the Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service serve all people regardless of race, color, age, sex, religion, disability, or national origin.

Outdoor Truths
by Gary Miller

It seems on opening day, all the sights, sounds, touches, and smells are at their highest peak. After being gone from the woods for several months, I am more aware of these things on the first few days of hunting season. I am especially fond of the smells that come through the cool, damp air. I believe God's favorite time must be at daylight on a fall morning. I'm also reminded that God never created one concrete building. His structures are of the mountain variety and they have stood the test of time and taste. Even though it may seem that the mountains and hills have replenished the supply of their characteristics, the truth is, they have been there all along. It is I who has been missing. There may be new trees, plants, and animals, but even this is a common characteristic of this special place. No, I am the one who has been absent from the picture. The mountain is faithful but I am fickle. The mountain is unchanging but I am undecided. The mountain is stable but I am shaky. I never have to cry out for the whereabouts of the mountain; I know that she will be where I left her. Many of us think God changes from month to month or from year to year, that He is different. We may think some of His attributes are, at times, more pronounced than at other times. We may even think He has actually moved. The truth is, if anyone has changed it is us. Whether we like it or not we are constantly being bombarded with outside influences. They are bidding for our time. They
